

Knowing Yourself

“God helps those that help themselves.” —Benjamin Franklin

“To know one’s self is to study one’s self in action with another person.” -Unknown

“Who has confidence in himself will gain the confidence of others.” -Leib Lazaro

Theme: Who Are Your Friends

Film: A Walk to Remember

(PG) 1:18

Based on the novel by Nicholas Sparks, this story of a girl firmly grounded in her religious beliefs finds herself attracted to a boy whose life and background are quite the opposite of hers.

Watch Video Clip – Channel 67 – 7:40 a.m.

Teaser Question: Does it matter what people think about you? Why? Why not?

Going Deeper: What does it mean to be self-confident? Whose opinions matter to you? How many people really know you?